

Supreme Council, Thirty-Third and Last Degree: of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite as Organized by Joseph Cerneau October 27, 1807

This rare 1889 work gives us a look into the organization of Joseph Cerneaus Sovereign Grand Consistory (Supreme Council), providing us with the Constitutions and General Regulations of the reorganized Cerneau bodies in the late 1800s, long after Cerneau himself had ceased being a part of this organization. Interesting reading for all students of the Scottish Rite. Part of the Cornerstone Scottish Rite Education Series.
