

The Improved Housewife, or Book of Receipts; With Engravings for Marketing and Carving.

Originally published in 1845, the no-nonsense tone of Webster's book undoubtedly accounted for its popularity: this comes through in her marketing advice (Ducks: select such as have supple feet, and are hard and thick on the breast and belly), and especially in the very last entry of her chapter on Miscellaneous Receipts: Punctuality: Fifteen minutes before the time.
