

Words in My Pocket: Early Days on Sunnybook Farm

Susan Manzke began writing her weekly column in 1980, soon after the birth of Russell, her third child. Her personal stories range from farm filth to kite flying, from tractor troubles to truck towing, and from refrigerator Valentines to Halloween costumes. Written in journal style, Manzkes words are filled with humor, hard work, and determination in overcoming every obstacle to live a creative and fulfilling life.
